Multiple Choice

Identify the choice that best completes the statement or answers the question.

- _____ 1. Mitch has $100 to spend and wants to buy either a new amplifier for his guitar or a new mp3 player to listen to music while working out. Both the amplifier and the mp3 player cost $100, so he can only buy one. This illustrates the basic concept that
- trade can make everyone better off.
 - people face trade-offs.
 - rational people think at the margin.
 - people respond to incentives.
- _____ 2. Efficiency means that
- society is conserving resources in order to save them for the future.
 - society's goods and services are distributed equally among society's members.
 - society's goods and services are distributed fairly, though not necessarily equally, among society's members.
 - society is getting the maximum benefits from its scarce resources.
- _____ 3. Mallory decides to spend three hours working overtime rather than watching a video with her friends. She earns $8 an hour. Her opportunity cost of working is
- the $24 she earns working.
 - the $24 minus the enjoyment she would have received from watching the video.
 - the enjoyment she would have received had she watched the video.
 - nothing, since she would have received less than $24 of enjoyment from the video.
- _____ 4. People are likely to respond to a policy change
- only if they think the policy is a good one.
 - only if the policy change changes the costs of their behavior.
 - only if the policy change changes the benefits of their behavior.
 - if the policy changes either the costs or benefits of their behavior.
- _____ 5. For an economist, the idea of making assumptions is regarded generally as a
- bad idea, since doing so leads to the omission of important ideas and variables from economic models.
 - bad idea, since doing so invariably leads to data-collection problems.
 - good idea, since doing so helps to simplify the complex world and make it easier to understand.
 - good idea, since economic analysis without assumptions leads to complicated results that the general public finds hard to understand.
- _____ 6. Economic models
- are constructed to mirror reality as closely as possible, and in this respect economic models are no different from other scientific models.
 - are constructed to mirror reality as closely as possible, and in this respect economic models are very different from other scientific models.
 - are simplifications of reality, and in this respect economic models are no different from other scientific models.
