The Oxford Handbook of the History of Archaeology Margarita Díaz-Andreu,Laura Coltofean,2024 The Oxford Handbook of the History of Archaeology offers comprehensive perspectives on the origins and developments of the discipline of archaeology and the direction of future advances in the field Written by thirty six archaeologists and historians from all over the world it covers a wide range of themes and debates including biographical accounts of key figures scientific techniques and archaeological fieldwork practices institutional contexts and the effects of religion nationalism and colonialism on the development of archaeology

The First World Empire Hélder Carvalhal,André Murteira,Roger Lee de Jesus,2021-04-05 This book offers a comprehensive overview of the early modern military history of Portugal and its possessions in Africa the Americas and Asia from the perspective of the military revolution historiographical debate The existence of a military revolution in the early modern period has been much debated in international historiography and this volume fills a significant gap in its relation to the history of Portugal and its overseas empire It examines different forms of military change in specifically Portuguese case studies but also adopts a global perspective through the analysis of different contexts and episodes in Africa the Americas and Asia Contributors explore whether there is evidence of what could be defined as aspects of a military revolution or whether other explanatory models are needed to account for different forms of military change In this way it offers the reader a variety of perspectives that contribute to the debate over the applicability of the military revolution concept to Portugal and its empire during the early modern period Broken down into four thematic parts and broad in both chronological and geographical scope the book deepens our understanding of the art of warfare in Portugal and its empire and demonstrates how the military revolution debate can be used to examine military change in a global perspective This is an essential text for scholars and students of military history military architecture global history Asian history and the history of Iberian empires Chapter 7 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Henry Dresser and Victorian ornithology Henry A. McGhie,2017-11-20 This book explores the life of Henry Dresser 1838 1915 one of the most productive British ornithologists of the mid late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and is largely based on previously unpublished archival material Dresser travelled widely and spent time in Texas during the American Civil War He built enormous collections of skins and eggs of birds from Europe North America and Asia which formed the basis of over 100 publications including some of the finest bird books of the late nineteenth century Dresser was a leading figure in scientific society and in the early bird conservation movement his correspondence and diaries reveal the inner workings motivations personal relationships and rivalries that existed among the leading ornithologists El-Hi
