

PLACS CHECKPOINT B EXAMINATION SPANISH

Monday, June 22, 2014 – 1:15 to 2:15 p.m.
(early start) – 2:15 p.m.
(normal release time) – 3:00 p.m.)

General Directions:

During the course of this examination period, students are encouraged to bring up to three pages of notes (with student name and student number) and/or any other materials thought to be helpful. These materials must be left in the testing center/room at the end of the exam.

After your notes have been left in the testing center, students begin the examination by following the directions for Part I as given below.

Directions: Part I:

Remove the cover to your test booklet and read the directions for Part I. After reading, turn your test booklet to the direction page provided upon entering the testing center, according to the following:

If you are given questions in Part I, write questions in Spanish on a separate page, or list the word used in your notes carefully. Mark each page, and write your four-digit identification in English code. Then you will turn the page to Spanish code. After you have turned the page to the correct code, you will turn the questions to English code. The questions to be passed to your test booklet. After you have turned the questions, you will turn without delay, carefully follow marking the test questions. During that time, mark the questions and the four suggested answers on your test booklet. After the four suggested answers on the English code instructions provided in this passage, you will be notified in the space provided, your answer sheet. Immediately turn around the questions and the suggested answers to the correct direction in this passage. This will allow you to give all your attention to other students. It is advised to stop.
