Genocide And Mass Violence Memory Symptom And Recovery:

Genocide and Mass Violence Devon E. Hinton, Alexander L. Hinton, 2014-11-10 What are the legacies of genocide and mass violence for individuals and the social worlds in which they live and what are the local processes of recovery Genocide and Mass Violence aims to examine from a cross cultural perspective the effects of mass trauma on multiple levels of a group or society and the recovery processes and sources of resilience How do particular individuals recall the trauma How do ongoing reconciliation processes and collective representations of the trauma impact the group How does the trauma persist in symptoms How are the effects of trauma transmitted across generations in memories rituals symptoms and interpersonal processes What are local healing resources that aid recovery To address these issues this book brings into conversation psychological and medical anthropologists psychiatrists psychologists and historians The theoretical implications of the chapters are examined in detail using several analytic frameworks Genocide and Mass Violence Devon E. Hinton, Alexander L. Hinton, 2015 Genocide and Mass Violence brings together a unique mix of anthropologists psychiatrists psychologists and historians to examine the effects of mass trauma Trauma and Recovery in Early North African Christianity Scott Harrower, 2024-04-22 Powerful religious elements for living in the aftermath of trauma are embedded within North African Christian hagiographies The texts of 1 The Passion of Perpetua and Felicity 2 The Account of Montanus Lucius and their Companions and 3 The Life of Cyprian of Carthage are stories that offered post traumatic pathways to recovery for its historical readership These recovery oriented beliefs and behaviors promoted positive religious coping strategies that revolved around a sense of safety re establishing community relationships an integrated sense of self and a hopeful story beyond trauma This book vividly demonstrates that hagiographies played a vital therapeutic role in helping early Christian trauma survivors recover and flourish in the aftermath of disastrous persecutions Afflictions Robert Lemelson, Annie Tucker, 2017-07-26 This book is one of the first to integrate psychological and medical anthropology with the methodologies of visual anthropology specifically ethnographic film It discusses and complements the work presented in Afflictions Culture and Mental Illness in Indonesia the first film series on psychiatric disorders in the developing world in order to explore pertinent issues in the cross cultural study of mental illness and advocate for the unique role film can play both in the discipline and in participants lives Through ethnographically rich and self reflexive discussions of the films their production and their impact the book at once provides theoretical and practical guidance encouragement and caveats for students and others who may want to make such films Trauma Counseling, Second Edition Lisa López Levers, 2022-02-24 The only comprehensive text to focus on trauma stress crisis and disaster counseling from a clinical practice perspective This overarching text intended both for mental health practitioners in training and for practicing clinicians focuses on the impact of stress crisis trauma and disaster on diverse populations across the lifespan as well as on effective treatment strategies The second edition is newly grounded in a trauma scaffold providing foundational information that therapists can build upon step by step to treat individuals affected by more complex trauma events This resource newly addresses the mental health implications of COVID 19 which has had an enormous impact on multitudes of people since the beginning of the pandemic its repercussions likely to continue for some time into the future The text also is updated to provide the most recent diagnostic information regarding trauma in the DSM 5 Two new chapters address the confluence of crises related to anthropogenic climate change and the effects of mass violence This unrivalled resource emphasizes stress management and crisis intervention skills as important building blocks for working with more complex issues of trauma and disaster It underscores the idea that trauma must be approached from multiple perspectives and in multiple dimensions encompassing individual community societal and systemic implications along with multicultural and diversity frames of reference The text integrates the latest findings from neuropsychology and psychopharmacology with an emphasis on Polyvagal Theory Additionally the text highlights the importance of clinical supervision in trauma care and examines ethical dimensions and the need for self care among trauma counselors Purchase includes digital access for use on most mobile devices or computers New to the Second Edition Reconceptualizes the text with the concept of a Trauma Scaffold as a foundation upon which to understand and develop treatment for increasingly complex trauma events Addresses the COVID 19 pandemic and its profound effect on the mental health of vast numbers of people Includes two new chapters on the confluence of crises related to anthropogenic climate change and the effects of mass violence Includes PowerPoint slides to accompany an updated Instructor s Manual Key Features Delivers both introductory and advanced clinical information addressing complex trauma Addresses trauma from a bioecological framework with emphasis on trauma informed practices multicultural pluralism diversity and social justice Considers neurobiological responses to trauma with new research and the contributions of Polyvagal Theory Examines individual familial community society and systemic understandings of stress crisis trauma and disaster Includes a wealth of resources for further study text boxes and case studies to reinforce learning

Biosocial Worlds Jens Seeberg,Andreas Roepstorff,Lotte Meinert,2020-09-29 Biosocial Worlds presents state of the art contributions to anthropological reflections on the porous boundaries between human and non human life biosocial worlds Based on changing understandings of biology and the social it explores what it means to be human in these worlds Growing separation of scientific disciplines for more than a century has maintained a separation of the natural and the social that has created a space for projections between the two Such projections carry a directional causality and so constitute powerful means to establish discursive authority While arguing against the separation of the biological and the social in the study of human and non human life it remains important to unfold the consequences of their discursive separation Based on examples from Botswana Denmark Mexico the Netherlands Uganda the UK and USA the volume explores what has been created in the space between the social and the natural with a view to rethink the biosocial Health topics in the book include diabetes trauma cancer HIV tuberculosis prevention of neonatal disease and wider issues of epigenetics Many of the chapters engage with constructions of health and disease in a wide range of environments and engage with analysis of the concept of environment Anthropological reflection and ethnographic case studies explore how health and environment are entangled in ways that move their relation beyond interdependence to one of inseparability The subtitle of this volume captures these insights through the concept of health environment seeking to move the engagement of anthropology and biology beyond deterministic projections Engaging Evil William C. Olsen, Thomas J. Csordas, 2019-05-03 Anthropologists have expressed wariness about the concept of evil even in discussions of morality and ethics in part because the concept carries its own cultural baggage and theological implications in Euro American societies Addressing the problem of evil as a distinctly human phenomenon and a category of ethnographic analysis this volume shows the usefulness of engaging evil as a descriptor of empirical reality where concepts such as violence criminality and hatred fall short of capturing the darkest side of human existence Syrian-Armenian Women Migrants in Armenia Anahid Matossian, 2025-01-23 After the outbreak of the 2011 Syrian War a number of Syrian Armenians who had lived in the territory for generations fled to the Republic of Armenia This book traces the experiences of Syrian Armenian women as they navigated their changing and gendered identities from their adopted homeland to their socially constructed new ancestral home in Armenia The rich ethnographic research conducted over 6 years by the author reveals how women adjusted to new lives in Armenia supported themselves through gendered work such as embroidery production yet mostly challenge simple identities such as refugee or repatriate existing in a state of what the author terms painful belonging The book further reveals crucial insight into how experiences and traumatic memories of war in Syria and the Nagorno Karabakh conflict reciprocally shape each other in the minds of the women interviewed The Politics of Memory and Justice in Post-genocide Rwanda Jody Lee Ranck, 1998 Genocide Alexander Laban Hinton, Kevin Lewis O'Neill, 2009-04-07 Leading anthropologists consider issues of truth memory and representation in the aftermath of genocides in the Balkans Guatemala Indonesia East Timor Germany Nigeria Rwanda and Sudan The Journal of Psychohistory, 1995 African Journal on Conflict Resolution, 2010 Between Vengeance and Forgiveness Martha Minow, 1999-11-01 The rise of collective violence and genocide is the twentieth century's most terrible legacy Martha Minow a Harvard law professor and one of our most brilliant and humane legal minds offers a landmark book on our attempts to heal after such large scale tragedy Writing with informed searching prose of the extraordinary drama of the truth commissions in Argentina East Germany and most notably South Africa war crime prosecutions in Nuremberg and Bosnia and reparations in America Minow looks at the strategies and results of these riveting national experiments in justice and healing Young Turk Social Engineering Uğur Ümit Üngör, 2009 Mass Violence and Memory in the Digital Age Eve Monique Zucker, David J. Simon, 2020-06-29 This volume explores the shifting tides of how political violence is memorialized in today's decentralized digital era The book enhances our understanding of how the digital turn is changing the ways that we remember interpret and memorialize the past It also raises practical and ethical questions of how we should utilize these tools and study their impacts Cases covered include memorialization efforts related to the genocides in Rwanda Cambodia Europe the Holocaust and Armenia to non genocidal violence in Haiti and the Portuguese Colonial War on the African Continent and of the September 11 attacks on the United States

The Subject of Violence Bat-Ami Bar On,2002-04-23 The Subject of Violence is a critical investigation of violence and the subjectifying capacities It both relies on and explores the work of Hannah Arendt At its background are feminist concerns but also concerns with violence that press against the feminist problematic and push its boundaries The book s main project is ethico political understanding and therefore it is also about finding an ethico political language for violence that escapes the standard idioms in which violence is spoken Weaving biographical fragments with theory the book addresses the very thinking of violence the possibility and implications of its comprehension genocide the Nazi Judeocide in particular and nationalism especially in its Zionist form as well as women s encounters with violence and second wave feminist engagement with the martial arts

Remembrance and Forgiveness Ajlina Karamehić-Muratović,Laura Kromják,2020-10-26 An enquiry into the social science of remembrance and forgiveness in global episodes of genocide and mass violence during the post Holocaust era this volume explores the ways in which remembrance and forgiveness have changed over time and how they have been used in more recent cases of genocide and mass violence With case studies from Rwanda Ethiopia South Sudan South Africa Australia Cambodia Indonesia Timor Leste Israel Palestine Argentina Guatemala El Salvador the United States Bosnia and Herzegovina and Chechnya the volume avoids a purely legal perspective to open the interpretation of post genocidal societies communities and individuals to global and interdisciplinary perspectives that consider not only forgiveness and thus social harmony but remembrance and disharmony This volume will appeal to scholars across the social sciences with interests in memory studies genocide remembrance and forgiveness

Third World Views of the Holocaust William F. S. Miles,2002

Engaging Violence Ivana Maček,2014-03-26 This volume opens up new ground in the field of social representations research by focusing on contexts involving mass violence rather than on relatively stable societies Representations of violence are not only symbolic but in the first place affective and bodily especially when it comes to traumatic experiences Exploring the responses of researchers educators students and practitioners to long term engagement with this emotionally demanding material the book considers how empathic knowledge can make working in this field more bearable and deepen our understanding of the Holocaust genocide war and mass political violence Bringing together international contributors from a range of disciplines including anthropology clinical psychology history history of ideas religious studies social psychology and sociology the book explores how scholars students and professionals engaged with violence deal with the inevitable emotional stresses and vicarious trauma they experience Each chapter draws on personal histories and many suggest new theoretical and methodological concepts to investigate emotional reactions to this material The insights gained through these reflections can function protectively enabling those who work in this field to handle adverse situations more effectively and can yield valuable knowledge about violence itself allowing researchers teachers and professionals to better understand their materials and collocutors Engaging Violence Trauma memory and representation will be of key value to students scholars psychologists humanitarian aid workers UN personnel policy makers social workers and others who are engaged directly or indirectly with mass political violence war or genocide
