The Age of Innocence, 1920 (Pulitzer Prize Winner). Novel By: Edith Wharton

Edith Wharton, 2017-01-07 The Age of Innocence is Edith Wharton's twelfth novel initially serialized in four parts in the Pictorial Review magazine in 1920 and later released by D Appleton and Company as a book in New York and in London It won the 1921 Pulitzer Prize for Fiction making Wharton the first woman to win the prize 1 Though the committee agreed to award the prize to Sinclair Lewis the judges rejected his Main Street on political grounds and established Wharton as the American First Lady of Letters the irony being that the committee had awarded The Age of Innocence the prize on grounds that negated Wharton's own blatant and subtle ironies which constitute and make the book so worthy of attention 2 The story is set in upper class New York City in the 1870s during the Gilded Age Wharton wrote the book in her 50s after she had established herself as a strong author with publishers clamoring for her work PLOT Newland Archer gentleman lawyer and heir to one of New York City's best families is happily anticipating a highly desirable marriage to the sheltered and beautiful May Welland Yet he finds reason to doubt his choice of bride after the appearance of Countess Ellen Olenska May's exotic and beautiful 30 year old cousin Ellen has returned to New York from Europe after scandalously separating herself per rumor from a bad marriage to a Polish count At first Ellen's arrival and its potential taint on the reputation of his bride to be s family disturb Newland but he becomes intrigued by the worldly Ellen who flouts New York society's fastidious rules As Newland's admiration for the countess grows so does his doubt about marrying May a perfect product of Old New York society his match with May no longer seems the ideal fate he had imagined Ellen's decision to divorce Count Olenski causes a social crisis for the other members of her family who are terrified of scandal and disgrace Living apart can be tolerated but divorce is unacceptable To save the Welland family's reputation a law partner of Newland asks him to dissuade Countess Olenska from divorcing the count He succeeds but in the process comes to care for her afraid of falling in love with Ellen Newland begs May to accelerate their wedding date but she refuses Newland tells Ellen he loves her Ellen corresponds but is horrified that their love will aggrieve May She agrees to remain in America separated but still married to Count Olenski only if they do not sexually consummate their love Newland receives May's telegram agreeing to wed sooner Newland and May marry He tries unsuccessfully to forget Ellen His society marriage is loveless and the social life he once found absorbing has become empty and joyless Though Ellen lives in Washington and has remained distant he is unable to cease loving her Their paths cross while he and May are in Newport Rhode Island Newland discovers that Count Olenski wishes Ellen to return to him but she has refused although her family wants her to reconcile with her husband and return to Europe Frustrated by her independence the family has cut off her money as the count had already done Edith Wharton born Edith Newbold Jones January 24 1862 August 11 1937 was a Pulitzer Prize winning American novelist short story writer and designer She was nominated for the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1927 1928 and 1930 Wharton combined her insider's view of America's privileged classes with a brilliant natural wit to write humorous incisive novels and short stories of social and psychological insight She was well acquainted with many of her era's other literary and public figures including Theodore Roosevelt
