Fennell,Flavio Comim,2020-12-16 Ever since Jim O Neill at Goldman Sachs coined the term BRICS in 2001 there have been many different assessments of these major emerging economies with some even proclaiming that the promise of the BRICS comprising Brazil Russia India China and South Africa is over However the so called arranged marriage still seems to be working well with the club having become a formal international forum with summit declarations ministerial meetings and numerous BRICS wide fora Is this euphoria misplaced Is there a BRICS model of economic and human development Are inequalities increasing and is this the denouncement of the economic successes Are geo political tensions rising between these nations During the post COVID 19 situation the importance of bilateral and multilateral co operation mechanisms and institutions is becoming clear This book focuses on one such emerging co operation mechanism of BRICS but also more widely on those five countries and other similar economies As a global depression looms large global economic recovery depends on the performance of not only its largest economies but also many other important and significant economies within the so called G20 group Even prior to the COVID 19 outbreak multilateral institutions have been under considerable strain as with the relationship between the United States of America and China and risks to global economic recovery appear very real This book brings together multi disciplinary perspectives from over sixty scholars and it presents a comprehensive and deep dive into the BRICS and emerging economies and into an understanding the political economic and social contexts that can help in designing approaches for recovery and regaining the last momentum in the journey towards the Sustainable Development Goals Risk, Resilience, and Recovery Across Global Education Systems Louis Volante,Kristof De

Witte,Orazio Giancola,Luca Salmieri,Don A. Klinger,2026-01-22 This book provides a critical review of the long term effectiveness of education and social protection policies enacted by G10 countries in response to the global pandemic The COVID 19 pandemic caused the most significant disruption to education systems since the devastation of World War II Successive waves and variants of the coronavirus resulted in school closures and spurred a range of policy interventions across national education systems to combat both the cognitive i e achievement in reading mathematics and science and non cognitive socioemotional development mental and physical health impacts on student achievement and wellbeing This book aims to evaluate the long term efficacy of such interventions drawing on an analysis of a cross section of nine industrialized countries the United Kingdom France Germany Italy Sweden Netherlands Belgium Canada and Japan It further offers cross national insights for policymakers and discusses the critical importance of broader notions of academic resilience in a post pandemic world Ultimately this volume aims to identify national policies that have helped to buffer students from the long term challenges associated with the aftermath of the pandemic A timely and important text it will be of interest to researchers and policymakers in education policy pandemic response impact evaluation and student mental health
