The Student Loan Handbook Lana J. Chandler, Michael D. Boggs, 1990 Your Federal Student Loans- Learn the Basics and Manage Your Debt U. S. Department U.S. Department Of Education, 2014-05-12 When you're considering college or some form of education after high school financial aid almost always comes to mind While you have the primary responsibility of paying for college sometimes those funds just aren't enough and you need to look at other resources The U S Department of Education provides more than 150 billion in federal student aid grants work study and loans each year to students seeking a postsecondary education a degree after high school About 14 million students currently receive federal student aid with a majority receiving federal student loans In addition to federal student aid financial aid is also available from colleges companies private scholarship funds or the state in which you live So there are resources to help you pay for college but you have to utilize them As you explore your financial aid options make sure to consider federal student loans These loans are a possibility for everyone because not all federal student loans are based solely on financial need If you have any questions or concerns about getting a federal student loan then make sure to review this publication Federal Student Loans Made Under the Federal Family Education Loan Program and the William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan Program David P. Smole, 2013-03-13 The William D Ford Federal Direct Loan DL program authorized under Title IV Part D of the Higher Education Act of 1965 HEA as amended is the primary federal student loan program administered by the U S Department of Education ED The program makes available loans to undergraduate and graduate students and the parents of dependent undergraduate students to help them finance their postsecondary education expenses The following types of loans are currently offered through the DL program Subsidized Stafford Loans for undergraduate students Unsubsidized Stafford Loans for undergraduate and graduate students PLUS Loans for graduate students and the parents of dependent undergraduate students and Consolidation Loans through which borrowers may combine multiple loans into a single loan For FY2013 ED estimates that 22.5 million loans not including Consolidation Loans totaling 120.8 billion will be made to students and their parents through the DL program Until July 1, 2010 Subsidized Stafford Loans Unsubsidized Stafford Loans PLUS Loans and Consolidation Loans were also available through the Federal Family Education Loan FFEL program authorized under Title IV Part B of the HEA The SAFRA Act part of the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010 HCERA P L 111 152 terminated the authority to make new loans under the FFEL program after June 30, 2010 While new loans may no longer be made through the FFEL program approximately 289 billion in FFEL program loans are outstanding and are due to be repaid over the coming years FFEL and DL program loans are low interest loans with maximum interest rates for each type of loan established by statute Subsidized Stafford Loans are unique in that they are only available to undergraduate students demonstrating financial need With certain exceptions the federal government pays the interest that accrues on

Subsidized Stafford Loans while the borrower is enrolled in school on at least a half time basis during a six month grace period thereafter and during periods of authorized deferment Unsubsidized Stafford Loans and PLUS Loans are available to borrowers irrespective of their financial need and borrowers are responsible for paying all the interest that accrues on these loans FFEL and DL program loans have terms and conditions that may be more favorable to borrowers than private and other non federal loans These beneficial terms and conditions include interest rates that are often lower than rates that might be obtained from other lenders opportunities for repayment relief through deferment and forbearance loan consolidation and several loan forgiveness programs In the recent years numerous changes were made to the terms and conditions of DL program loans The Budget Control Act of 2011 BCA P L 112 25 eliminated the availability of Subsidized Stafford Loans to graduate and professional students for periods of instruction beginning on or after July 1 2012 and terminated the availability of certain repayment incentives for loans made on or after July 1 2012 The Consolidated Appropriations Act FY2012 P L 112 74 eliminated interest subsidies during the six month post enrollment grace period on Subsidized Stafford Loans disbursed between July 1 2012 and June 30 2014 The Moving Ahead for Progress in the 21st Century Act MAP 21 P L 112 141 lowered the interest rate from 6 8% to 3 4% on Subsidized Stafford Loans made between July 1 2012 and June 30 2013 Also for individuals who are new borrowers on or after July 1 2013 MAP 21 restricted both the period during which individuals may borrow Subsidized Stafford Loans and the period during which the in school interest subsidy may be provided to 150% of the published length of their educational program
