From Below Volume 1:

Planning from Below Marta Harnecker, Jose Bartolome, 2019-06-24 A simple and revolutionary toolbox to help any group create an actual and functioning democracy In this book Marta Harnecker with Spanish economist Jos Bartolom shares some of her wisdom on how communities everywhere can gain empowerment For when impoverished people became involved in the planning process they no longer feel like beggars demanding solutions from the state they become the creators of their own destiny Set out in two parts this book first demonstrates the importance of community participants working outside a hierarchy to allow as much decentralization as possible The second part of the book centers on the methodology of this process the various tasks taken on by participants and how in planning processes over years they are carried out

Heritage from Below Dr Iain J M Robertson, 2012-11-28 Research into the ways in which the past is constructed and consumed in the present is now reaching a mature stage This maturity derives from the general acceptance that heritage as a social and cultural construct is closely connected to the making and maintaining of identity at all spatial scales This unique book contributes to the developing discourse by focusing on heritage from below in a field where the literature on the relationship between heritage and identity has rightly been focused on national identity Never before have the contemporary manifestations and the theoretical structuring framework of the idea of heritage from below been discussed in the depth offered by this book The authors first establish the concept and then engage with the actual practice and practitioners of heritage from below in the UK Europe Australia and North America

Capitalism from Above and Capitalism from Below T. Byres, 1997-01-12 The distinction between capitalism from above and capitalism from below is important in the analysis of the agrarian question in poor countries The Prussian path and the American path are here examined against existing historical scholarship Their unfolding from their earliest roots to the point of final agrarian transition in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries is considered The dialectic between social relations and productive forces mediated as it was by the state is treated and the implications for capitalist industrialisation scrutinised
