Lillian On Life:

Lillian on Life Alison Jean Lester, 2016-05-10 I absolutely loved Lillian on Life Kate Atkinson I found it full of life and full of wisdom Erica Jong Smart poignant funny and totally original Lillian on Life is as fresh and surprising as fiction gets This is the story of Lillian a single woman reflecting on her choices and imagining her future Born in the Midwest in the 1930s Lillian lives loves and works in Europe in the fifties and early sixties she settles in New York and pursues the great love of her life in the sixties and seventies Now it s the early nineties and she s taking stock Throughout her life walking the unpaved road between traditional and modern choices for women Lillian grapples with parental disappointment and societal expectations wins and loses in love and develops her own brand of wisdom Lillian on Life lifts the skin off the beautiful stylish product of an era to reveal the confused hot blooded woman underneath Life, 1893 Cultural Issues in End-of-Life Decision Making Kathryn L. Braun, James H. Pietsch, Patricia L. Blanchette, 1999-11-15 Cultural Issues in End of Life Decision Making creates an engrossing tension as chapters on philosophical topics are interwoven with clinically oriented ones including case examples that ground the reader in the reality of most human decisions I highly recommend this book to researchers health care providers clergy and other practitioners dealing with end of life issues Catherine Hagan Hennessy Health Care and Aging Studies Branch Center for Disease Control and Prevention End of life decision making is one of the most difficult but crucial challenges faced by patients and their families In most cases resources or counselors providing guidance in these decisions are not available This book is intended to prepare nurses physicians and other health care workers to fill this role insofar as they are most frequently in contact with the patient and his her family and significant others at the time choices must be made In this informative practical book Braun Pietsch and Blanchette first review the medical legal and ethical context of the dying experience discussing ethnic perspectives and religious issues For example providing cultural and spiritually sensitive care requires that nurses physicians social work and others know and understand the implications of family members beliefs about life and death supportive rituals and other activities This book does a creditable job of presenting the issues and a broad overview of culture and common religions in America About the Editors Kathryn L Braun Dr P H is Director of the University of Hawaii Center on Aging and an Associate Professor at the University of Hawaii School of Public Health She is a Fellow in the Gerontological Society of American and the Association for Gerontology in Higher Education James H Pietsch J D is Director of the University of Hawaii Elder Law Program UHELP an Associate Professor at the William S Richardson School of Law and a Clinical Adjunct Professor at the John A Burns School of Medicine In 1990 he was the recipient of the Fifth Annual Paul Lichterman Memorial Award for contributions to the advancement of Law and Aging Patricia L Blanchette M D M P H is a Professor of Medicine and Public Health at the John A Burns School of Medicine and School of Public Health at the University of Hawaii at Manoa Dr Blanchette is the Director of the Medical School s cross departmental Geriatric Medicine Program and Geriatric Medicine Fellowship Program the Pacific
