Where to for Provincial Education? Russell Wildeman,Rose Hemmer-Vitti,2010 South Africa s provincial education departments have been reduced to provincial administrations for reasons that include the powerful role national government plays in delivering education services This book looks in detail at education spending and asks Can we afford to maintain administrations that cannot possibly change the course of poor quality education and engineer a brighter future for our poor and deprived learners The authors believe this question and the future role of provincial education departments need to be discussed openly and publicly without delay

Substance Use and Abuse in South Africa George Ellis,Dan Stein,Ernesta Meintjies,Kevin Thomas,2012-07-04 Substance abuse is an enormous social problem in South Africa as elsewhere But in South Africa in particular tik crystal meth or methamphetamine and alcohol are devastating society aggravating poverty and crime and contributing to child abuse and gender violence Substance Use and Abuse in South Africa has arisen out of the thriving Brain Behaviour Initiative BBI at the University of Cape Town which relates neuroscience and behavioural science to social issues This ground breaking book looks at the problem of substance abuse from multiple perspectives and particularly in the light of recent discoveries in brain and behavioural science but also takes a public health view Its focus ranges from brain imaging and dopaminergic neurocircuitry to policy and prevention and is written by local researchers at the cutting edge

Green Schools Globally Annette Gough,John Chi-Kin Lee,Eric Po Keung Tsang,2020-08-31 This book brings together stories of the green schools movement Eco Schools Enviroschools Green Schools Sustainable Schools ResourceSmart Schools etc in several countries around the world with a focus on the impact of the movement on the development and implementation of education for sustainable development in each of the countries In particular each story will explain the history of the movement per country its current status achievements obstacles and broader impact There have been a number of evaluations of these school movements at a national or more local level and numerous articles and chapters have been published on aspects of these schools activities but to date these have not been brought together in a single volume that focuses attention on the impact of the movement on education for sustainable development in each country This is the purpose of this volume The green schools movement focuses on a whole school approach which aims to include everyone students teachers and the local community to improve school environments including resource usage and the environmental footprint of the school to motivate students to take on environmental problems and seek resolutions particularly at a local level but also thinking globally and to improve students attitudes and behaviours as part of developing a sustainable mind set Drum ,2006
