A Valency Dictionary of English Thomas Herbst, David Heath, Ian F. Roe, Dieter Götz, 2013-02-06 This dictionary provides a valency description of English verbs nouns and adjectives Each entry contains a comprehensive list of the complementation patterns identified on the basis of the largest corpus of English available at the present time All examples are taken directly from the COBUILD Birmingham corpus The valency description comprises statements about the quantitative valency of the lexical units established an inventory of their obligatory contextually optional and purely optional complements as well as systematic information on the semantic and collocational properties of the complements An outline of the model of valency theory used in this dictionary is provided in the introduction

Handbook of Spanish-English Translation Lucía V. Aranda, 2007 The Handbook of Spanish English Translation is a lively and accessible book for students interested in translation studies and Spanish This book details the growth of translation studies from Cicero to postcolonial interpretations of translation as rewriting It examines through examples the main issues involved in translation and interpretation such as text types register interference equivalence and untranslatability The chapters on interpretation and audiovisual translation and the comparative analysis of Spanish and English are especially significant The second part of the book offers a rich compilation of diverse Spanish and English texts academic literary and government writings comic strips brochures movie scripts and newspapers and their published translations each with a brief introduction by Professor Aranda

Country Life, 1993 Autocar, 2006 Hoover's Handbook of American Business, 1994 English as a Local Language Christina Higgins, 2009-07-08 When analyzed in multilingual contexts English is often treated as an entity that is separable from its linguistic environment It is often the case however that multilinguals use English in hybrid and transcultural ways This book explores how multilingual East Africans make use of English as a local resource in their everyday practices by examining a range of domains including workplace conversation beauty pageants hip hop and advertising Drawing on the Bakhtinian concept of multivocality the author uses discourse analysis and ethnographic approaches to demonstrate the range of linguistic and cultural hybridity found across these domains and to consider the constraints on hybridity in each context By focusing on the cultural and linguistic bricolage in which English is often found the book illustrates how multilinguals respond to the tension between local identification and dominant conceptualizations of English as a language for global communication
