Legal Complaint Letter for Discrimination

December 5, 2052

Maryjane Dare

maryjane@you.mail

123 Oak Avenue

Metropolis, ST 65432

Dear Ms. Dare,

I am writing to formally lodge a complaint against you for discriminatory treatment I have experienced during my tenancy at 123 Pine Drive. On November 22, 2052, I was subjected to unfair treatment when attempting to renew my lease. I was informed that my application would not be considered due to my ethnicity and background, which is in direct violation of the Fair Housing Act and other federal and state anti-discrimination laws.

As per the aforementioned laws, it is illegal for a landlord to discriminate based on race, color, religion, gender, national origin, familial status, or disability. Your actions are in violation of these rights, and I demand that you provide an explanation and take immediate corrective action.

If this issue is not resolved promptly, I will pursue legal action, including filing complaints with the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and consulting with an attorney. I look forward to your immediate response.
