Expertise in Second Language

Writing Instruction Alan Hirvela, Diane D. Belcher, 2024-11-25 Despite growing interest in L2 writing teachers there is a dearth of published works that specifically delve into the nuances of the development of L2 writing teacher expertise Informed by relevant foundational theory and empirical research this book addresses this crucial gap in the understanding of expertise in L2 writing instruction This book offers a holistic analysis of L2 writing instruction serving as a valuable resource for those involved in the development of L2 writing teacher educators as well as novice teachers striving to hone their skills in teaching L2 writing It draws from a wide array of international perspectives on the conceptualization of L2 writing teacher expertise and research in this domain Significantly it is the first comprehensive work that places expertise in L2 writing instruction at the forefront It will interest scholars in the disciplines of foreign and second language education as well as postgraduate students and aspiring teachers

The Realms of Rhetoric Joseph Petraglia, Deepika Bahri, 2003-10-01 Argues for a more theoretically informed and cogent curricular space for rhetoric in the academy In The Realms of Rhetoric contributors from a wide range of disciplines explore the challenges and opportunities faced in building a curricular space in the academy for rhetoric Although rhetoric education has its roots in ancient times the modern era has seen it fragmented into composition and public speaking obscuring concepts theories and skills Petraglia and Bahri consider the prospects for rhetoric education outside of narrow disciplinary constraints and together with leading scholars examine opportunities that can propel and revitalize rhetoric education at the beginning of the millennium The teaching of rhetoric of how to think together and talk together and read and write together is the most important of all vocations and this book is a step toward uniting those of us who under whatever disciplinary label see it that way from the Foreword by Wayne C Booth The great strength of this book is that Petraglia and Bahri were able to collect essays that all pursue a common goal the articulation of a common trans disciplinary rhetoric education without sacrificing coherence Bruce McComiskey author of Gorgias and the New Sophistic Rhetoric Unlike many books and articles that purport to address issues of the teaching of rhetoric or rhetorical skills this collection manages to keep its focus on pedagogy and curriculum in a way that illuminates both the problems facing rhetoric education today and the prospects for revitalizing it in the near future Robert Yagelski coeditor of The Relevance of English Teaching that Matters in Students Lives Contributors include Deepika Bahri Anne Beaufort David Bleich Wayne C Booth M Lane Bruner Michael Carter Grant C Cos Ellen Cushman Thomas J Darwin David Fleming William D Fusfield Victoria Gallagher Hildegard Hoeller Walter Jost Carolyn R Miller Thomas P Miller Rolf Norgaard Joseph Petraglia and John T Scenters Zapico

Writing to Learn: An Introduction to Writing Philosophical Essays Anne Michaels

Edwards, Anne Edwards, 1999-10-21 Based on the premise that one of the best ways for a student to understand a topic is to write about it this is a book that teaches students how to write philosophical essays Geared toward first time philosophy students the book is a supplement for any Philosophy course in which the instructor requires the students to write essays

Most of the work involved in a Philosophy class is reading assigned material thinking about it and then writing about it whether on an exam or in an essay written outside of class This book is designed to make all three of those activities easier Writing to Learn begins with helpful hints on how to read philosophy chapter 2 In chapters 3 through 7 students are guided through several different types of essays beginning with the simplest summaries that demonstrate knowledge and understanding and progressing through essays that require the application of theories to new situations the analysis and evaluation of arguments used and finally the synthesis of several theories or arguments Writing for College and Beyond James Rovira, 2019-04-29 Writing for College and Beyond prepares students for their future college classes by covering the strategies common to most college writing In the process of being prepared for college writing however students are also taught chapter by chapter how these writing skills will carry forward into their future professional lives beyond college One of the least expensive first year writing textbooks on the market the text isn't inflated with material that most instructors and students won't use and several exercises encourage students to use either provided web or YouTube links as texts supporting their practice for longer assignments If you're a first year writing instructor and would like to consider this text for your course email the author at brightfuturespublishing at gmail dot com for a desk copy Course in Industrial Publishing Business Training Corporation, 1921 Researching and Writing Christine A.
