Limpopo June 2014 Paper Memo

Freedom Mazwi, George T.
Mudimu, Kirk Helliker

Limpopo June 2014 Paper Memo:

Chinese Investment in Africa Freedom Mazwi, George T. Mudimu, Kirk Helliker, 2024-03-01 This edited volume systematically interrogates the Chinese investment presence in Africa focusing on land and agriculture mining and other infrastructural projects In doing so the form and extent of Chinese debt will be brought into perspective with comparisons made to investments in Africa emanating from metropolitan capitalism The volume examines the development potential of these investments by focusing on the labour regimes created and the effects of investments on the land based agricultural livelihoods of the African peasantry This entails the use of a political economy approach which incorporates the state international actors and local communities into the analysis with gender dynamics also of great significance Overall the contributions in this volume focus on an array of African nations with a specific focus on Zimbabwe and they deploy a large wealth of primary field based data collected over a number of years by established and emerging scholars living and working on the continent

South African Foreign Policy Review: Volume 2 Masters, Lesley, Zondi, Siphamandla, 2015-07-13 The first two decades of South Africa's democracy have seen a growing breadth and depth in the analysis of South Africa's foreign policy This second volume of the South African Foreign Policy Review considers the continuity and change in South Africa's foreign policy over the course of two decades with a particular focus on the more recent approach under the Zuma administration This includes a closer look at the principles practices and partnerships that shape South Africa's international relations and is aimed at supporting knowledge for reflection on South Africa's conduct internationally and for anticipating ways in which the country may approach international relations and foreign policy going forward It discusses the foreign policy making and the nature of South Africa's diplomatic relations with Africa Asia the Middle East and North Africa Latin America Europe and North America as well as the country's participation in multilateral diplomacy in Africa the global South and at the United Nations UN to expand the discussion and deepen the debate on the future shape and direction of South Africa's foreign policy

Interest Groups, Water Politics and Governance Richard Meissner, 2015-07-08 The book investigates the role interest groups have played over the years to influence the governments of Lesotho and South Africa the World Bank and project implementation authorities in changing some policy aspects of the Lesotho Highlands Water Project LHWP Some of the issues being agitated by the interest groups are the resettlement of villagers where some of the dams for the projects are being constructed The author argues that interest groups and individuals have the ability to influence the above mentioned institutions and to such an extent that water politics and governance is not the domain of state institutions only

Legal pedagogy, practice and curriculum transformation: What does the future hold and look like? Charles Maimela, 2025-07-18 In an era marked by rapid technological innovation and complex socio political shifts legal education stands at a critical crossroads This timely publication explores the imperative for a curriculum that is both responsive and resilient capable of adapting to the evolving needs of students institutions and society at large Blending theoretical analysis with practical insight the book offers forwardthinking strategies to navigate the multifaceted challenges of curriculum transformation Drawing on the lived experiences and reflections of law educators across diverse institutions it provides a unique lens into how curriculum innovation can enhance teaching learning and research in the legal academy More than a commentary this book is a call to action a vital resource for educators academic leaders and policymakers committed to ensuring the continued relevance excellence and social responsiveness of legal education in the 21st century Political Ecology of African Peace Parks Maano Ramutsindela,2025-11-06 Peace parks are imagined landscapes and seascapes created through narratives and science This book uses a political ecology framework to explore the colonial and uneven geography of peace parks in post independence Africa It illuminates the regional milieus impacting these parks and the consequent socioecological and political dynamics This book curates a space for multiple voices and knowledges of peace parks and highlights the limits to truth claims It presents peace parks as a milieu that enables the assemblage of underexamined concepts in political ecology The book advances four arguments The first is that critical scholarship on the peace parks initiative in Africa and elsewhere has been crowded out by a dominant and well sponsored narrative of these parks Second the ideology of peace parks capitalises on societal aspirations and challenges to wage the war of the mind Third peace parks are a geographical expression of coloniality The fourth argument is that the regional dynamics account for the uneven geography of peace parks in Africa These dynamics reveal the symbiotic relations between politics and ecology The founding of peace parks animates resource politics but also depoliticises the resource question Situated in the ongoing debates on protecting the planet in an unequal world and the pathways for a just society this book will be of interest to researchers of African studies political ecology human geography sociology environmental studies and political science

Local Officials and the Struggle to Transform Cities Claire Bénit-Gbaffou ,2024-02-27 Why are even progressive local authorities with the will to improve seldom able to change cities Why does it seem almost impossible to redress spatial inequalities deliver and maintain basic services elevate impoverished areas and protect the marginalised communities Why do municipalities in the Global South refuse to work with prevailing social informalities and resort instead to interventions that are known to displace and aggravate the very issues they aim to address Local Officials and the Struggle to Transform Cities analyses these challenges in South African cities where the brief post apartheid moment opened a window for progressive city government and made research into state practices both possible and necessary In debate with other progressive moments in large cities in Brazil the USA and India the book interrogates City officials practices It considers the instruments they invent and negotiate to implement urban policies the agency they develop and the constraints they navigate in governing unequal cities This focus on actual officials practices is captured through first hand experience state ethnographies and engaged research These reveal day to day practice that question generalised explanations of state failure in complex urban societies as essential malevolence contextual weakness corruption and inefficiency It is hoped that opening the black box of the workings of state opens paths for the construction of progressive policies in contemporary cities
