Videojournalism Kenneth Kobre, 2024-04-19. Videojournalism: Multimedia Storytelling for Online Broadcast and Documentary Journalists is an essential guide for solo video storytellers, from backpack videojournalists to short-form documentary makers. It covers all broadcast reporters. Based on interviews with award-winning professionals sharing their unique experiences and knowledge, Videojournalism covers topics such as crafting and editing eye-catching short stories, recording high-quality sound, and understanding the laws and ethics of filming in public and private places. Other topics include understanding the difference between a story and a report, finding a theme, and telling a story in a compact time frame; learning to use different cameras and lenses from smart phones to mirrorless and digital cinema cameras; using light, both natural and artificial; understanding color and exposure. The second edition of this best-selling text has been completely revised and updated. Heavily illustrated with more than 550 photographs, the book also includes more than 200 links to outstanding examples of short-form video stories. Anatomy of a News Story, a short documentary made for the book, follows a day in the life of a solo TV videojournalist on an assignment with a surprise ending and helps readers translate theory to practice. This book is for anyone learning how to master the art and craft of telling real short-form stories with words, sound, and pictures for the Web or television. A supporting companion website links to documentaries and videos and includes additional recommendations from the field's most prominent educators.

SONY ZV-1F USER GUIDE Steve C. DiCarlo, Sony. ZV 1F User Guide ends the guesswork and lets your pocket camera shine.
