Screening Religions in Italy Clodagh J. Brook,2019-11-04 Religion has had been foundational in shaping Italy Home to the Vatican State the Italian peninsula is the religious centre for one billion Catholics globally It is also increasingly home to those of other faiths especially Islam Italy's development as a contemporary post secular and multi religious society is fraught and fascinating The recent resurgence of religious discourse is a sign of what German philosopher Jürgen Habermas has defined as the post secular condition Habermas and others have questioned what most people in the West had up to a few years ago taken for granted the unstoppable forward march of secularization and the subsequent marginalization of religion Instead one of the greatest global fault lines in the contemporary world the divide between absolutist extremist Islamic faith and liberal but Christian inflected secular values has religious identity at its core The first book length study to examine religion in contemporary Italian cinema and television Screening Religions in Italy spans genres such as horror comedy hagiopics and TV fiction and explores both commercial and art house filmmaking In a discussion of films and television series that range from Moretti's Habemus Papam to Sorrentino's The Young Pope the author identifies two key issues how Italian filmmaking constructs the continuing position of religion in the public sphere and why religion persists on Italian screens

Recent Italian Cinema Tiziana Ferrero Regis,2009 In Recent Italian Cinema two fundamental questions are asked the first concerns whether Italian cinema as national cinema is in reality reduced to a niche market in its own territory The second relates to what Italian audiences do with domestic films For nearly two decades most Italian films have been produced outside box office returns through a practice of subsidy and co financing between many institutional and private entities Thus Italian cinema has had to define its mode of production and use value of films in a different way It is clear that it is no longer possible to separate national cinemas from the grip that the American film industry has on world markets in terms of imagination and modes of production distribution and exhibition It is thus only by examining the multiple layers of description and analysis which take into account the presence of Hollywood that we can come to an understanding of what recent Italian cinema actually is
