

Social Work Assessment

Patient information

Name: Jonathan Reed

Date of birth: March 15, 1985

Gender: Male

Address: 123 Maple Street, Springfield, IL 62704

Contact number: (555) 123-4567

Email address: john.reed@email.com

Date of consultation: September 20, 2024

Presenting concerns:

Johnathan presented concerns related to anxiety and depression, exacerbated by recent job loss and financial instability. He also expressed feelings of isolation due to limited social interaction and strained family relationships.

Background information/history:

Johnathan has a history of mental health challenges, including a diagnosis of generalized anxiety disorder (GAD) in 2017. He has had intermittent employment since 2020, working in construction before being laid off earlier this year. His family history includes mental health issues, as his father was diagnosed with bipolar disorder.

Support system:

Johnathan reports minimal support from his immediate family, though he maintains occasional contact with his older brother, who lives out of state. He has a few close friends but struggles to rely on them due to his feelings of guilt and fear of being a burden.

Assessment areas

Physical and mental health:

Johnathan's physical health is generally good, though he has reported increased fatigue and difficulty sleeping due to anxiety. His mental health requires ongoing attention, as he is experiencing heightened symptoms of anxiety and depression, affecting his day-to-day functioning.

Social and environmental factors:

Johnathan resides in a one-bedroom apartment in an economically disadvantaged neighborhood. Social isolation is a concern, as he has limited engagement with community resources or social activities.

Family Assessment Paper For Social Work Example:

Child and Family Assessment in Social Work Practice Sally Holland, 2010-11-15 This thoroughly revised and updated second edition of Child and Family Assessment in Social Work Practice is an essential guide for social work students and practitioners involved in the assessment of children and their families. Focusing on core assessments and guiding the reader through the complexities of conducting assessments of need and risk, the book now includes within each chapter a range of specifically tailored exercises and focus points which encourage readers both to reflect on what they have learnt and to understand how they can apply that learning to practice. Placing a strong emphasis on good evidence based assessment practice, Sally Holland has also for this new edition included original research evidence from a wide range of up to date research studies which are relevant to today's practice and which aim to promote a critical and reflective approach to the assessment process. The book is divided into three parts: Part 1 explores different approaches to assessment work, outlining policy changes and their implications for working with children and their families; Part 2 studies those involved in child and family assessments, children and their parents, and the relationship between the assessors and the assessed; Part 3, a more practical guide, outlines the actual process of an assessment, illustrated by case studies, focusing on planning, assessment methods, analysis, reporting, and critical evaluation. Accessibly relating theory and research to actual practice through the use of case studies, exercises, and suggestions for good practice and further reading, this book has a student friendly structure. It will be an invaluable resource for practitioners and academics across the field of social welfare, particularly for those embarking on or already involved in child and family assessment. Improving Child and Family Assessments Danielle Turney, Dendy Platt, Julie Selwyn, Elaine Farmer, 2011-09-15 This book brings together findings from 10 years of UK research that shed light on different aspects of child and family assessment, examining the evidence for what works in promoting the best outcomes for children. It covers thresholds for assessment and intervention, what information should be collected, and assessments in different contexts. Family Assessment Handbook Barbara Thomlison, 2006 The purpose of this book is to give students introductory knowledge and skills for the assessment of family functioning and guidelines for clinical assessment and intervention planning. Students, beginning practitioners, and instructors can facilitate learning through the case studies and activities. Pref. Oxford Textbook of Palliative Social Work Terry Altilio MSW, ACSW, LCSW, Shirley Otis-Green MSW, ACSW, LCSW, OSW, 2011-03-23 The Oxford Textbook of Palliative Social Work is a comprehensive evidence informed text that addresses the needs of professionals who provide interdisciplinary, culturally sensitive, biopsychosocial, spiritual care for patients and families living with life threatening illness. Social workers from diverse settings will benefit from its international scope and wealth of patient and family narratives. Unique to this scholarly text is its emphasis on the collaborative nature inherent in palliative care. This definitive resource is edited by two leading palliative social work pioneers who bring together an array of international authors who provide clinicians, researchers, policy makers, and academics with a broad range of content to enrich the guidelines recommended by the National Consensus Project for Quality Palliative Care
