

The Lemonade War

Chapter Summaries

Chapter 1: Slump

The story begins with Evan hiding out in the basement throwing a baseball up and down. His younger sister, Jessie, finds him downstairs. Despite his attempts to get her to go away, she is insistent on finding something to do together: play Stratego, ride bikes to 7-11, build a fort, etc. Evan is clearly annoyed with his sister (although the reader does not yet know why). Jessie asks if he is upset because of the "letter". He gets distracted by this and the ball that he has been tossing hits him in the nose. Jessie tries to comfort him, but he yells at her and tells her that he hates her.

Chapter 2: Breakup

Jessie is confused about why Evan is so upset, but she suspects that it could be about the letter that they received on Monday. The letter was from school and stated that due to decreased enrollment Jessie's 2nd grade class needed to be combined with Evan's 4th grade class, so when school starts they will have the same teacher. Jessie is thrilled with the news feeling that her older brother can protect her; however, it is clear that Evan is not happy about having his younger sister in his class.

This chapter also gives more insights into Jessie:

- She is a very bright girl and good at math (sometimes better than Evan)
- One of her favorite summer hobbies is running a lemonade stand
- When she feels stressed, she is comforted by reading Charlotte's Web
- She is planning to enter a Rotary Club competition about Labor Day, but she has no ideas for it yet.
