However, as movements for social justice worldwide become more prevalent, some stakeholders in the field are beginning to question the field's genuine commitment to such values. In Japan, for example, is the English language truly viewed as a practical communication tool to engage with diverse interlocutors on the global stage? Or do problematic discourses regarding the notion of the ownership of English and the idealized speaker of English prevail due to the lingering dichotomy between so-called non-native English speaking teachers (NNESTs) and native English speaking teachers (NESTs), a dichotomy that unfortunately intersects with views of ethnoracial and cultural difference and which leads to discriminatory tendencies in pedagogical practices, educational cultures, and social structures. The overall purpose of this volume is to initiate conversations about how issues surrounding language, race, and multiculturalism currently inform pedagogical practice in English Language Teaching (ELT) in Japan. We, the editor and contributors, intend to explore these issues with the hope that the experiences and pedagogical actions documented in this volume will motivate others to reflect on current challenges, raise appreciation for diversity in ELT, and dismantle inequities. Handbook of Scientific Societies in Japan Nihon Yunesuko Kokunai Iinkai, 1955 The Impact of Covid-19 on the Institutional Fabric of Higher Education Rómulo Pinheiro, Elizabeth Balbachevsky, Pundy Pillay, Akiyoshi Yonezawa, 2023-07-19 This open access book assesses how the Covid-19 pandemic caught higher education systems throughout the world by surprise. It maps out the responses of higher education institutions to the challenges and strategic opportunities brought about by the pandemic and examines the effects such responses may have. Bringing together scholars and case studies from Europe, Asia, Africa, and the Americas, the book is both comparative and global in nature. It also brings together researchers from a variety of disciplinary fields, including political scientists, historians, economists, sociologists, and anthropologists. In doing so, the book fosters an interdisciplinary dialogue and inclusive methodological approach for unpacking the complexities associated with modern higher education systems and institutions. Japanese educational institutions Yoshi Saburo Kuno, 1926 Guide to Japanese Reference Books Nihon no Sankō Toshō Henshū Iinkai, 1979 Asia and the Americas, 1927 Directory of Statisticians in Japan, 1963 Information Bulletin of the Union of National Economic Associations in Japan, 2000 Bibliographic Guide to East Asian Studies 1996 G.
