

“Ex-Basketball Player” (1958)

John Updike

Background

According to poetryfoundation.org in mid-March during the NCAA basketball tournament, one poem received over 3 million hits on their website. This poem, John Updike's "Ex-Basketball Player," narrates the story of man who fails to move-on from his glory days as a star basketball player in high school.

Updike was a fiction novelist whose brief foray into poetry produced a poem that is one of the greatest poems addressing the difficult transition from adolescent stardom to adult success. The poem's popularity may suggest that millions of middle-aged men and women still feel this as they watch the highs and lows of the heroes of the NCAA basketball national championship.

Establishing a Connection

Where do you see yourself in 10 years? What will you be doing? What will you look like physically? What will be your attitude about life?
