SONA 2022 REACTION PAPER

On July 25, 2022, President Ferdinand Marcos Jr. delivered his State of the Nation Address in Batasang Pambansa Quezon City. His State of the Nation Address lasted one hour and fourteen minutes and I was on a roller coaster of emotions while watching the said address. Marcos began his speech by outlining his plans for the Philippines as the country's 17th president in the coming year. He set the tone for how the President will govern the country during his tenure. He also outlines the state's road map for the next six years in terms of the most important factors to consider. It will be a confirmation of the platforms he established during his campaign.

During Marcos' speech, I was only fascinated and cheering. I'm very impressed with how his first State of the Nation Address speech went. Throughout his speech, there was never a monotonous or uninteresting moment I felt. I was ecstatic. Excitement about the next agenda item he will tackle, the next words he will spit out, and even the quotations he will deliver. His message was clearly sent from the first to the last words he uttered. Once he said, "Samahan niye at pakitingan ang ating bansa at ang mga plano at mithiin natin bilang isang sambayanan para sa mga susunod na taon." That quotation makes me feel comfortable because we chose the right President who will manage and protect us in our country.

Personally, I believed that his presidency would leave an indelible mark. Thus, President Marcos focuses on agriculture as well as economic issues, and we Filipinos benefit from this. He stated in his speech that there was no lockdown to better manage our economy. He prefers medications, food supplies, and water. He did everything he could to show us that we could have a better Philippines during his tenure. Furthermore, he clearly delivered his word for us to understand and suitable for what we primarily require these days. There was no reason for us to have a much better country if he can do his job well as our President.
