EFFECTIVE COMMUNICATORS

Communication is the thread that binds our society together. Effective communicators are able to use the thread (communication skills) to shape the future. To be an effective communicator, one must know how to put words together that communicate thoughts, ideas, and feelings. These thoughts, ideas, and feelings are then expressed in writing or delivered orally. Some individuals are immortalized because of their ability to put words together. A few examples of those who have been immortalized are Patrick Henry, Nathan Hale, and Abraham Lincoln.

Patrick Henry

Words move people to action. Patrick Henry's words ("I know not what course others may take, but as for me, give me liberty or give me death!") helped bring about the Revolutionary War in 1775.

Nathan Hale

Words show an individual's commitment. Who can question Nathan Hale's commitment when he said, "I only regret that I have but one life to lose for my country."

Abraham Lincoln

Words can inspire. The Gettysburg Address (Abraham Lincoln, 1863) inspired the Union to carry on its cause. Today many Americans, still inspired by Lincoln's words, have memorized at least part of his address. "Four score and seven years ago, our fathers brought forth on this continent a new nation, . . . dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal. . . ."
