Les chroniques de Kaarina , Afropean Female Selves Christopher Hogarth,2022-10-31 Afropean Female Selves Migration and Language in the Life Writing of Fatou Diome and Igiaba Scego examines the corpus of writing of two contemporary female authors Both writers are of African descent live in Europe and write about lives across Europe and Africa in different languages French and Italian Their work involves episodes from their lived experience and complicates Western understandings of life writing and autobiography As Hogarth shows in this study the works of Diome and Scego encapsulate the new and complex identities of contemporary Afropeans As an identity coined and used frequently by prominent authors and critics across Europe Africa and North America the notion of Afropean is at the cutting edge of cultural analyses today Yet each writer occupies unique and different positions within this debated category While Scego is a post migratory subject in postcolonial Europe Diome is an African writer who has migrated to Europe in her adult life This book examines the different trajectories and packaging of these two specific postcolonial writers in the Francophone and Italophone contexts pointing out how and where each author practices life writing strategies and scrutinizing the trend that emphasizes the life writing autofictional or autoethnographic strategies of African diasporic writers Afropean Female Selves offers a comparative study across two languages of a notion that has so far been explored mainly in English It explores the contours of this new discursive category and positions it in regard to other notions of Afrodiasporic identity such as Afropolitan and Afro European

Books from Finland ,1983 A History of Finland's Literature George C. Schoolfield,1998-01-01 The literature of Finland is bilingual with lively and extensive traditions in both Finnish and Swedish This history covers both literary traditions in detail The volume s first section on Finnish language literature consists of a series of connected chapters by leading authorities within the field It opens with a consideration of the folk literature in Finnish that flourished during the Middle Ages and then examines the more recent history of Finnish language literature with special emphasis placed on writings from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The second part of the book provides an examination of Finland s Swedish language literature from the late fifteenth century through the early nineteenth century Subsequent chapters trace developments in Finland s Swedish language literature during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries A survey of children s literature from both the Finnish and Swedish language traditions concludes this exceptionally thorough volume de una serie de visitas y contactos directos con centros especializados de cada uno de los países de la comunidad. Tras una exposición de los objetivos y la metodología se expone el problema de la falta de directorios y redes organizadas para acceder a la información que sobre la mujer se genera en Europa. Seguidamente se presenta un informe de situación por cada país. Asimismo se presentan los recursos e iniciativas existentes a nivel europeo e internacional y se analizan comparativamente algunas cuestiones técnicas sobre las colecciones, su sistema de clasificación, catalogación e indización y la tipología de los usuarios. Por último se incluye un capítulo de conclusiones y recomendaciones.
