Watkins's novel Still Standing On the Word of God is the story of Sharde who began her young life with the death of her mother at her father's hand She was placed in her grandparents' hands and taken away from the home she and her brother knew As a result she experienced abandonment issues and sought to make her life one of purpose Even when her dad got out of prison Sharde still had the same issues plus having to become a second mom to her eight brothers and sisters Sharde knew the challenge before her and was determined not to live a life of poverty She wanted to become a teacher and make her life one of purpose with the ability to help others as her teachers had done for her Still Standing On the Word of God shows one can live a worthwhile life after a tragic beginning But it isn't always easy One needs people who believe in him and her And as Sharde discovers it requires belief and faith in God and his Word With him all things are possible No matter what your beginnings
