The Feminist Encyclopedia of Spanish Literature: N-Z Janet Pérez, Maureen Ihrle, 2002 Spanish literature includes some of the world's greatest works and authors It is also one of the most widely studied This reference looks at the literature of Spain from the perspective of women's studies Though the volume focuses on the literature of Spain written in Castilian it also includes survey entries on the present state of women's literature in Catalan Galician and Basque Included are hundreds of alphabetically arranged entries for numerous topics related to Spanish literature including Literary periods and genres Significant characters and character types Major authors and works Various specialized topics Each entry discusses how the topic relates to women's studies Entries for male authors discuss their attitudes toward women Female writers are considered for the restrictive cultural contexts in which they wrote Specific works are examined for their representations of female characters and their handling of women's issues Each entry is written by an expert contributor and closes with a brief bibliography The volume concludes with a list of works for further reading

Electronic Networks Tharon W. Howard,1999 In spite of all the hype about the Internet and the ways networks are changing the face of education there is surprisingly little information of pragmatic value to teachers This book addresses that problem head on Electronic Networks is a book written by practicing classroom teachers about actual instructional computing projects in real classrooms Rather than talk about the classroom of the future the authors provide the help teachers need to integrate instructional technologies in their classrooms They do so by addressing the real problems and real successes of teaching in networked environments One way to read this book is to look for specific conditions and activities that ensure success with computers Taken as a whole the book is an argument for building a human infrastructure at the same pace we are installing computers and writing for developing effective ways to assess whether students are truly benefiting from technology and for addressing issues of equitable use
