- You must provide copies of a piece of government-issued identification (such as a driver's license, health card, birth certificate or passport). If you have proof of alternative forms of identification, please provide those instead. You must also submit a copy of an affidavit, statement that states your address (such as a recent telephone or utility bill, or a bank or credit card statement). You may black out unnecessary details on a bill or statement, as long as the copy clearly shows the date of the document, the number, your name and address, and your account number.
- Equifax will use the information you provide to confirm your identity and current home address. We will cross-reference the information you provide with our own records, as well as with your name, date of birth or other data we receive (or obtain) from the information you provide, as well as data we receive or collect from other businesses. The information you provide to confirm your identity will not be used to update or change your financial or credit history information.
- If you provide your Social Insurance Number, we will cross-reference it with our records to ensure that we obtain the correct information on you. Knowing your SIN helps us avoid delays and confusion in case another individual's identifying information (such as name and address) is similar to your own.
- We will keep a copy of the information you provide to demonstrate that we complied with our obligation to obtain reasonable identification from you.
- We may use the personal information you provide to update our records. The information may also be disclosed to our customers as part of your credit report.
- Equifax will send a copy of your credit report by mail to your confirmed home address. You should receive it within 30 days.
- Please note that if any corrections are necessary, you must complete the credit report update form enclosed with the credit report sent to you. (See Form - Consumer Credit Report Update Form - see also for details on file at www.equifax.ca under Credit Education and Services) or contact us at 1-877-333-3333.
