Burack, 2018-09-21 Executive function is an umbrella term for various cognitive processes that are central to goal directed behavior thoughts and emotions These processes are especially important in novel or demanding situations which require a rapid and flexible adjustment of behavior to the changing demands of the environment The development of executive function relies on the maturation of associated brain regions as well as on stimulation in the child s social contexts especially the home and school Over the past decade the term executive function has become a buzzword in the field of education as both researchers and educators underscore the importance of skills like goal setting planning and organizing in academic success Accordingly in initiating this Research Topic and eBook our goal was to provide a forum for state of the art theoretical and empirical work on this that both facilitates communication among researchers from diverse fields and provides a theoretically sound source of information for educators The contributors to this volume who hail from several different countries in Europe and North America have certainly accomplished this goal in their nuanced and cutting edge depictions of the complex links among various executive function components and educational success Hokkaido Mathematical Journal ,2017 Bangladesh Primary Education Annual Sector Performance Report Second Primary Education Development Program (Bangladesh).,2013 Parliamentary Papers Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,1920 Students at Risk of School Failure José Jesús Gázquez, José Carlos Núñez,2018-10-18 The main objective of this Research Topic is to determine the conditions that place students at risk of school failure identifying student and context variables In spite of the fact that there is currently little doubt about how one learns and how to teach in some countries of the developed world there is still there is a high rate of school failure Although the term school failure is a very complex construct insofar as its causes consequences and development from the field of educational psychology the construct student engagement has recently gained special interest in an attempt to deal with the serious problem of school failure School engagement builds on the anatomy of the students involvement in school and describes their feelings behaviors and thoughts about their school experiences So engagement is an important component of students school experience with a close relationship to achievement and school failure Children who self set academic goals attend school regularly and on time behave well in class complete their homework and study at home are likely to interact adequately with the school social and physical environments and perform well in school In contrast children who miss school are more likely to display disruptive behaviors in class miss homework frequently exhibit violent behaviors on the playground fail subjects be retained and if the behaviors persist quit school Moreover engagement should also be considered as an important school outcome eliciting more or less supportive reactions from educators For example children who display school engaged behaviors are likely to receive motivational and instructional support from their teachers The opposite may also be true But what makes student engage more or less The relevant literature indicates that personal variables e g sensory motor neurodevelopmental cognitive motivational emotional behavior problems learning difficulties addictions social and or cultural variables e g negative family conditions child abuse cultural deprivation ethnic conditions immigration or school variables e g coexistence at school bullying cyberbullying may concurrently hinder engagement preventing the student from acquiring the learnings in the same conditions as the rest of the classmates Inequality in America Stephen M. Caliendo,2018-05-15 Why does inequality have such a hold on American society and public policy And what can we as citizens do about it Inequality in America takes an in depth look at race class and gender based inequality across a wide range of issues from housing and education to crime employment and health Caliendo explores how individual attitudes can affect public opinion and lawmakers policy solutions He also illustrates how these policies result in systemic barriers to advancement that often then contribute to individual perceptions This cycle of disadvantage and advantage can be difficult though not impossible to break Representing and What Can I Do feature boxes throughout the book highlight key public figures who have worked to combat inequality and encourage students to take action to do the same The second edition has been thoroughly revised to include the most current data and to cover recent issues and events like the 2016 elections and the Black Lives Matter movement It now also includes a brand new chapter on crime and criminal justice and an expanded discussion of immigration Concise and accessible Inequality in America paves the way for students to think critically about the attitudes behaviors and structures of inequality Improving Service Delivery in Uganda ,2014 New England Journal of Education Thomas Williams Bicknell,Albert Edward Winship,Anson Wood Belding,1902 Journal of Education ,1902 Technological Innovation in Legacy Sectors William B. Bonvillian,Charles Weiss,2015-08-18 The American economy misses opportunities for innovation growth and job creation because of a neglected problem the resistance to innovation from Legacy sectors like energy manufacturing and health care which constitute most of our economy The book offers systematic strategies to overcome the structural obstacles to innovation in critically important Legacy sectors Abstracts of Papers Presented to the American Mathematical Society American Mathematical Society,2002 Agroborealis ,2014 Bradstreet's Weekly ,1926 Engineering Record, Building Record and Sanitary Engineer ,1892
