General Movie Discussion Questions:

Movies as History Marie L. Aquila, 2014-04-22 Popular movies can enhance the study of history. A dominant form of entertainment throughout the 20th century, they can serve as nontraditional primary sources and offer remarkable opportunities to observe attitudes about social concerns, gender, or racial issues, politics, and historical events that were current when the movies were made. This book is a topical guide for educators, providing detailed analysis of 35 movies followed by discussion questions that will help students interpret how each movie's content and themes reflect the times when it was made. The book covers four main topics: the Great Depression, World War II, the early years of the Cold War, and the changing expectations and images of women in movies from 1930 to 1970. An historical overview chronicles how each topic was treated in movies from that time period. The movies should have wide appeal in grades 7 through 12 and can help students learn to think more critically about the images and messages that appear in popular media today. Finding Faith at the Movies Barbara Mraz, 2004

Moral Theory at the Movies Dean Kowalski, 2011-12-08 Moral Theory at the Movies provides students with a wonderfully approachable introduction to ethics. The book incorporates film summaries and study questions to draw students into ethical theory and then pairs them with classical philosophical texts. The students see how moral theories, dilemmas, and questions are represented in the given films and learn to apply these theories to the world they live in. There are 36 films and a dozen readings, including Thank you for Smoking, Plato's Gorgias, John Stuart Mill's Utilitarianism, Hotel Rwanda, Plato's Republic, and Horton Hears a Who! Topics cover a wide variety of ethical theories, including ethical subjectivism, moral relativism, ethical theory, and virtue ethics. Moral Theory at the Movies will appeal to students and help them think about how philosophy is relevant today. Activities for Adolescents in Therapy Susan T. Dennison, 1998 This how-to book has been written primarily for experienced group clinicians, social workers, psychologists, psychiatrists, and school counselors. However, it may also be adapted for use by other experienced helping professionals who work with troubled adolescents in group settings, such as art therapists, special education teachers, recreation therapists, and speech language pathologists. Although the activities are intended for groups, modifications can easily be made for use in individual therapy. Reel History Robert Brent Toplin, 2002 The author makes an argument for clemency in judging Hollywood's interpretations of history and thoroughly investigates its serious limitations and opportunities to construe history.
