- Introduction
- Life policies as their name suggests, are based on the life of a particular person, the LIFE ASSURED, and benefits become payable on the death of that person.
- At the very commencement of negotiations, therefore, the person whose life the policy is to be based must be named and the risk of death during the term of the policy assessed.
- The ASSURED (sometimes referred to as the person assured or the policy holder) is the name given to the person who effects the policy and is the original owner of the policy.
