

Working of a Pyramid Scheme

How does it all start?

Recruiters approach with bogus claims of high returns and get-rich-quick promises. Recruits are expected to pay high entry fees or buy overpriced product packages. More the joining fees, higher the benefits.

1

How does it progress?

Recruits may be given products to sell but focus is laid on recruiting more people. Product sales are not really appreciated.

2

How are commissions paid?

Recruits are paid commission for bringing in new members and new members recruit more people who pay joining fees. The more people you recruit, the higher your commissions will be.

3

Who will get the benefits?

The benefit will be only for the early entrants at the top. At a certain level recruits find it difficult to get fresh recruits.

4

How does a pyramid collapse?

Eventually new members will stop joining and the system will collapse. People at bottom lose all their investments while those at the top pocket the money.
