Global Perspectives on Changing Secondhand Economies Karen Tranberg Hansen, Jennifer Le Zotte, 2022-02-23 Providing interdisciplinary and global perspectives this book examines historical and contemporary changes in secondhand economies including the emergence and specialization of secondhand venues the materials involved as well as the cultural significance of secondhand things and the professions associated with them The objects in focus range from used clothing scrap and waste materials to antiques and used cars thrift stores and circular economies Growing concerns with sustainability in the West have helped bring about the rediscovery of practices of clothing re use re purposing and re cycling at the same time as major high street retailers are establishing programs to return used clothing to their stores for re sale or recycling As the contributions to this edited volume demonstrate recent concerns with the fast pace and adverse effects of global commodity flows have increased the scholarly attention to secondhand economies both in terms of their history and their significance for livelihoods and sustainability The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Business History

Malaysian Media Studies: Integrating Perspectives (UM Press) Azizah Hamzah, Amira Firdaus, 2016 This edited volume revisits developments in the field of media education and media studies at a time when society is experiencing a ubiquitous networked digital media environment Rapid advances in media and communication technologies and the accompanying developments in social cultural political and economic realms pose unexpected challenges to the curricula of long established media and communication schools As opposed to rigidly structured nation based mass media systems of the past century the new global media sphere celebrates the breaking down of borders whether spatial cultural or social Today in the second half of the second decade of the 21st century this problem translates into what and how to teach students of media who in all likelihood are more adept media consumers and producers than their teachers In a region where educational institutions and educators don t transform as fast as media technologies do there is a need to problematize and to reflect upon the situation This edited volume examines critical issues related to media studies at local institutions of higher learning and includes a sampling of research charting new directions in local media scholarship Contributions to this edited volume reflect the shared concerns of media educators and researchers in Malaysia and two neighboring countries Indonesia and Thailand Three main themes underscore this volume reflecting their importance to the evolution of media education and to a certain extent research as well Historical development of media education and training Current developments and future trajectories of media education in a globalized digital media environment Analysis of media and society
