Ecological Restoration Law Afshin Akhtar-Khavari, Benjamin J. Richardson, 2019-01-25

Ecological restoration is as essential as sustainable development for the health of the biosphere

Restoration however has been a low priority of most countries environmental laws which tend to focus narrowly on rehabilitation of small discrete sites rather than the more ambitious recovery of entire ecosystems and landscapes

Through critical theoretical perspectives and topical case studies this book s diverse contributors explore a more ambitious agenda for ecological restoration law

Not only do they investigate current laws and other governance mechanisms they also consider the philosophical and methodological bases for the law to take ecological restoration more seriously

Through exploration of themes relating to time space geography semiotics social justice and scientific knowledge this book offers innovative and critical insights into ecological restoration law

Systemic Black American Poverty in Northwest Louisiana Stephen Pinkney, 2026-01-09

Caddo Parish Louisiana is a region marked by high poverty rates among Black residents

In this parish the Black American population surpasses the White population and poverty among African Americans is more than double that of White residents

The poverty rate for Black Americans in Caddo Parish also exceeds both the state average for Louisiana and the national average

A similar trend is observed in neighboring

Bossier Parish These two parishes are interconnected through their most prominent cities forming the Shreveport Bossier City Metropolitan Area Within this metropolitan region poverty levels among Black residents are currently higher than the national average This book examines how systemic racism has become embedded in urban development suburban sprawl political systems and other structural factors It explores how these elements have perpetuated poverty within the Black community and hindered progress from the colonial era of Louisiana through the Civil War and into the present day in Caddo Parish
