Rare Earth Frontiers Julie M. Klinger,2018-01-15 Rare Earth Frontiers is a work of human geography that serves to demystify the powerful elements that make possible the miniaturization of electronics green energy and medical technologies and essential telecommunications and defense systems Julie Michelle Klinger draws attention to the fact that the rare earths we rely on most are as common as copper or lead and this means the implications of their extraction are global Klinger excavates the rich historical origins and ongoing ramifications of the quest to mine rare earths in ever more impossible places Klinger writes about the devastating damage to lives and the environment caused by the exploitation of rare earths She demonstrates in human terms how scarcity myths have been conscripted into diverse geopolitical campaigns that use rare earth mining as a pretext to capture spaces that have historically fallen beyond the grasp of centralized power These include legally and logistically forbidding locations in the Amazon Greenland and Afghanistan and on the Moon Drawing on ethnographic archival and interview data gathered in local languages and offering possible solutions to the problems it documents this book examines the production of the rare earth frontier as a place a concept and a zone of contestation sacrifice and transformation

Spatial Implications and Planning Criteria for High-Speed Rail Cities and Regions José Maria de Ureña,Chia-Lin Chen,Anastasia Loukaitou-Sideris,Roger Vickerman,2021-03-29 Spatial Implications and Planning Criteria for High speed Rail Cities and Regions evaluates the varied experiences that HSR systems have brought about to different station cities and their regional territories around the world with an eye towards better future planning and policy of such systems This edited volume draws from examples of high speed rail operations in different cities in Europe and Asia to depict the various impacts of this major transportation infrastructure It attempts to distinguish the short and long term impacts described in the literature classifying them into regional and inter urban effects urban effects and wider economic impacts Planning challenges appear at two major points 1 during the initial planning stage that includes the route and location of stations and 2 during the development process that follows The case studies in the book concentrate on a variety of topics from the impact of high speed rail on population growth in some station cities to the regional economic impacts that an HSR system can bring about to the larger territories it passes through to the potential of station cities to better attract firms or to experience increases in tourism and commerce They also assess planning strategies and experiences from station cities to draw lessons for future HSR planning policies The Chapters in this book were originally published in a special issue of European Planning Studies Global Perspectives on Changing Secondhand Economies Karen Tranberg Hansen, Jennifer Le Zotte, 2022-02-23 Providing interdisciplinary and global perspectives this book examines historical and contemporary changes in secondhand economies including the emergence and specialization of secondhand venues the materials involved as well as the cultural significance of secondhand things and the professions associated with them The objects in focus range from used clothing scrap and waste materials to antiques and used cars thrift stores and circular economies Growing concerns with sustainability in the West have helped bring about the rediscovery of practices of clothing re use re purposing and re cycling at the same time as major high street retailers are establishing programs to return used clothing to their stores for re sale or recycling As the contributions to this edited volume demonstrate recent concerns with the fast pace and adverse effects of global commodity flows have increased the scholarly attention to secondhand economies both in terms of their history and their significance for livelihoods and sustainability The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Business History The Rural New-Yorker ,1923 The Uganda Gazette Uganda,2015-12 Canadian Books in Print ,1982 The College Handbook College Entrance Examination Board,1985 Presents information on 4 year colleges and universities and 2 year community colleges and technical schools Illinois Reading Council Journal ,2013 The Washingtonian ,1979-04 Journal of the National Education Association ,1950 ERIC Educational Documents Index, 1966-69: Minor descriptors and author index ,1970 NEA Journal National Education Association of the United States,1950 The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints Library of Congress,American Library Association.
