

A Positive Life Changing Experience

A positive life changing Experience I had my life set. At the age of 15 I had no fears, no fears about life. My day-to-day routine comprised of going to school, coming home, resting for a while, waking up, and going out with friends, coming back home, sleeping, and then repeating the same thing the next day. I didn't care about my schoolwork or even classwork for that matter. Why? My dad, he was the shelter to my 'whatever-who-cares' way to life.

He provided me with clothing, wristwatches and accessories more luxurious than many of my peers' whole attire. An extremely relaxed and stylish ride to go to school with- I had everything. To my 15 year old mind it was all that mattered, and my 15 year old brain knew that even if it never happened, the person whose it was, could enjoy a lavish fun life anyways. But then, life happened as I woke from the dream. My dad's industry suffered a loss to such a massive extent that I dropped from being a leader to well- being a regular person.

At that time I was angry, furious. I had little understanding of what was really going on, all I knew was that I wasn't going to have the things that I was used to being able to live the life that once did. This whole condition took me for a major hit in my young adult life, in my mind I was going to be just like everybody else, which was not what I'd off must say this could have been the best thing that happened to me, when I look back on my life, because I had become a materialistic jerk.

Now that I am much more mature I grasped that, that's not a good way to go through life because surprising events happen, without anyone's control and I had been whipped into a habit of needing these things to make me feel whole as a person, which was not needed, but my dad spoiled me to no extreme. I have learned to appreciate the things I have in life and not over do it because a name doesn't make you who you are.
