Read "The Big Contest" and answer questions 1 – 6.

The Big Contest

"We'll win this contest," José bragged to Aisha at recess.

"How?" Aisha moaned. "Why did the fifth grade pick us to represent them in the Big Bake Off?"

"You don't give us enough credit," José said. "We're capable kids, smart and good at many things. The contest has many different categories and divisions we can enter. And besides, I've got a foolproof plan that's going to make sure we win."

Suddenly, Aisha was at recess last year, listening to another one of José's foolproof plans. That one had gotten them into big trouble. José was so positive they could win. They were thrown out of the contest altogether.

"Aisha, are you listening?" asked José.

Aisha shook herself and said, "What's your plan?"

"We'll bake a gigantic cake," José answered. "It will be huge, and we'll get the prize for the biggest cake."

Aisha said, "You know what, José? You're on to something!"

The next day Aisha and José went shopping to buy the ingredients. At Aisha's house they washed their hands and started.

"We'll just bake a few cakes at a time, and then we can put them together with a lot of frosting," Aisha said.

They measured and mixed, sifted and stirred, and baked. Soon it was evening, and the luminous dial on the clock glowed in the dark. Cakes were everywhere, and the kids slumped against the counter in exhaustion.

"I'll never stand up straight again," José moaned.

"Uh-oh," Aisha said, as she brushed strands of hair out of her eyes.

"We'd better throw out this part of the cake because it's soggy."

"So it's a little mushy," José said. "It will dry out."

The next day José and Aisha brought the huge cake to school. The judges tasted all the other cakes and smiled a lot, but they did not taste the gigantic cake José and Aisha had baked.

"This looks bad for us," Aisha whispered.

"We'll win," José said, but he was not so sure.

The judges cleared their throats. "First prize for the biggest cake goes to," the entire fifth grade held their breath as the judges said, "José and Aisha and the fifth grade!"

"I said it was inevitable we would win," José said with a smile. "I knew it all along!"
