

A hand wearing a black glove is holding a brown leather whip with a white decorative border. The hand is positioned on the left side of the frame. In the background, several other whips of various colors (brown, black, red, purple) and styles are hanging vertically on a wall. The whips are made of different materials, some appearing to be wood or bamboo, and some are made of leather. The overall scene suggests a collection of riding equipment, specifically whips, in a stable or tack room.
