major sports played. An example of this is flag football, a form of American football, which is played with flags on the waist instead of helmets and padding. Other sports include judo, taekwondo, and various traditional sports like capoeira and parkour.

Over 2000 athletes participating from 120 countries. The event is organized by the International World Games Association (IWGA). The games are held in various countries and the athletes are divided into different teams based on their countries of origin.

The games are not only a platform for showcasing athletic skills but also a celebration of cultural diversity. Athletes from different countries often participate in cultural exchange programs, learning about each other's traditions and customs. The games also feature various cultural activities like music, dance, and art exhibitions.

The games are a unique window into the past, showing a deep respect for culture and heritage. They also emphasize the importance of sports in promoting the diversity of human
