Reading the passage and answer their questions!

The Forgotten Library

Amara had always been drawn to old, abandoned places, and the stories they seemed to hold within their crumbling walls. One crisp autumn afternoon, while walking through the outskirts of her town, she stumbled upon something remarkable. Hidden behind a tangle of vines and weathered stone was what appeared to be the entrance to an ancient building. The faded letters etched above the archway read, Eterna Bibliotheca.

Curiosity overcame caution, and Amara pushed open the heavy wooden door, its hinges groaning in protest. Inside, the air smelled of dust and forgotten memories. Shelves towered over her, filled with books whose spines were cracked and faded. Light filtered through a shattered stained-glass window, casting colorful patterns on the worn marble floor. It was breathtaking. She wondered why no one had mentioned this place before. Was it truly forgotten, or had it been deliberately left to time?

As Amara wandered deeper, she noticed peculiar things. Some books glowed faintly, their pages warm to the touch. One book, resting on a pedestal at the center of the library, seemed to hum softly when she approached. The cover bore no title, only a strange symbol she didn't recognize. Against her better judgment, she opened it.

The pages were blank at first, but then words began to appear, forming sentences as if an invisible hand were writing them. The words spoke directly to her, recounting her own memories, fears, and dreams in eerie detail. Startled, she closed the book and stepped back, her pulse racing. Who had created this library, and why did it seem to know her?

Amara's mind buzzed with questions, but one thing was certain: this library held secrets she was only beginning to uncover. As she left, the door creaked shut behind her, and she couldn't help but feel that the library had awakened after years of silence—and it wasn't finished with her yet.

1. What does Amara discover while walking through the outskirts of her town?
How does she feel about it?

2. What unusual features does Amara notice about the books inside the library?

3. Why do you think the library seemed forgotten or deliberately hidden?
What purpose might it serve?

4. What might the library's ability to reveal Amara's memories and fears suggest about its nature or purpose?

5. If you were in Amara's position, would you explore the library further or leave? Why?
