INTRODUCTION

An HR review analysis and several HR educational mapping projects were made so far to surpassed the challenges of today. That is why school administrators, academic heads, and the subject teachers themselves are acquiring different strategies on how recruitment and manpower requirements improve and appealing to them. It has been said that before the companies settle to hire new employees, the firm should be engage and maintain a formal recruiting processes that involves the three HR components: Planning, Recruitment, and Employee Selection. HR Planning takes place with the number of potential employees they are hiring. The skills, competencies and other employee credentials must be achievable according to the manpower expectations.

On the other hand, the Recruitment should be consistent in terms of their job posting, campus recruitment, and referrals. This will measure hiring assessments,
