

Woke up today feeling very full of thoughts about subject choices and making decisions and choices had some ideas (really must compile these soon) that if you could make decisions thinking in terms of decades rather than the moment you make much better decisions.
And then I can't help connect that to my goal of being fully committed to the moment and doing my best in the present.
So the purpose (and a process to understand more) about how these two notions
- make decisions based on the long term
- live each moment by being fully present in it.

Haha. Ok, so there are a few words popping in like
... and some people with that thought a bit more.

What's the opposite of living in the moment? What has the content been in some of my past decisions & what did the long term outcome turn out to be? I also obviously need to reflect more on my successes as I do on my failures. I do spend a lot of time trying to think about what to learn from the times I didn't succeed & that's been really useful for me, but have also done more of the stuff that helped me grow as less more as the little with my kids.

Anyway, speaking of success, I was reflecting yesterday on what it really means to me and also how it's changed for me over the years and I was so surprised to realize, when I actually put it into words, that I finally
... what it
