Pearson, 1979* The Compact Book of Adjusting Property Insurance Claims Barry Zalma, 2018-01-17 The insurance adjuster is not mentioned in a policy of insurance The obligation to investigate and prove a claim falls on the insured Standard first party property insurance policies based upon the New York Standard Fire Insurance policy contain conditions that require the insured to within sixty days of the loss submit a sworn proof of loss to prove to the insurer the facts and amount of loss The policy allows the insurer to then and only then respond to the insured s proof of loss The insurer can then either accept or reject the proof submitted by the insured Technically if the wording of the policy was followed literally the insurer could sit back do nothing and wait for the proof If the insured was late in submitting the proof the insurer could reject the claim If the insured submits a timely proof of loss the insurer could either accept or reject the proof of loss If the insurer rejected the proof of loss the insured could either send a new one or give up and gain nothing from the claim Suit on the policy would be difficult because the policy contract limited the right to sue to times when the proof of loss condition had been met Insureds and insurers were not happy with that system It made it too difficult for a lay person to successfully present a claim The system as written into the standard fire policy seemed to run counter to the covenant of good faith and fair dealing that had been the basis of the insurance contract for centuries Most insurers understood that their insureds were mostly incapable of complying with the strict enforcement of the policy conditions To fulfill the covenant of good faith and fair dealing insurers created the insurance adjuster to fulfill its obligation to deal fairly and in good faith with the insured Loss Adjustment Procedure and Adjuster's Manual, 1939 The Adjuster's Manual for the Settlement of Accident and Health Claims Charles Hamilton Harbaugh, 1926 The Adjuster's Manual for Evaluation of Accident and Sickness Claims, 1958 The Adjuster's Manual for the Settlement of Accident and Health Claims Charles Hamilton Harbaugh, 1915 The Adjuster's Manual for the Settlement of Accident and Health Claims, 1947 Adjuster Claims Manual National Flood Insurance Program (U.S.).
