After completing the online course, review this study guide carefully. There are no additional tests you are allowed to take. The computer-generated tests you took receive feedback, and also the need for ongoing assessment. The link is located on the right side of the page, below the Study Guide Student Account. Whether you print or not, you will be notified by automated messages. If you print, check before the message generation. It contains a link to your account completion certificate. If you receive that message, you will need a copy of the course completion certificate for your records.

Additionally, you will need to provide your certificate to Emergency Response Office (ERO) with a copy of your course completion certificate and on the day of an event. The ERO will verify your certificate and notify you. If you have questions concerning your certificate, contact your instructor or contact your ERO.
