

Symbols of Kappa Kappa Gamma

The Owl

The owl, belonging to Minerva, the Goddess of Wisdom, represents the value of wisdom to each Kappa sister and the Fraternity at large.

Coat-of-Arms

The Fraternity Coat-of-Arms combines the well-known symbols of Kappa Kappa Gamma: the key, the fleur-de-lis, the owl and the light and dark blues.

The Golden Key

The golden key was originally worn by the founders of Kappa Kappa Gamma as a symbol of their membership. Today, all initiated members receive a key to designate their bonds of sisterhood.

Light and Dark Blue

These shades are reproduced in the soft velvety blues seen while approaching the cornflower in shade, pictured above. The Fraternity jewel, the sapphire, exhibits these same characteristics. The sapphire is recognized as a symbol of truth, sincerity and constancy.

The Fleur-de-lis

The fleur-de-lis was chosen as the Fraternity flower because of its dignity, stateliness and grace. It combines the light and dark blues of the Fraternity in one flower.
