Rise to power

Essay question: Analyse the methods used and the conditions which helped in the rise of a single-party ruler.

Introduction: Adolf Hitler was able to consolidate his dictatorship and create the title of 'Führer' for himself in 1933. Hitler's rise to power was due to number of positive factors:

- The economic situation in Germany post-1929 brought out the weaknesses of Weimar democracy and radicalised much of the ordinary German population, turning it against the Weimar regime and thus providing support for the Nazi party.
- The strength and appeal with of the Nazis combined with the conditions created to persuade the masses to support Hitler and his party; the Nazis' propaganda and organisation was efficient, he had a successful strategy and an effective identification of key issues.
- Hitler's own personality and influence is also of key importance.
- In order to understand Hitler's rise to power we must evaluate the conditions of the Weimar regime at the time, the nature of support which helped Hitler obtain power and the importance of the methods the Nazis employed to gain this support.

Paragraph: The weaknesses of democracy at the time and the government's inability to deal with the crisis of 1929 created desperate conditions which radicalised the German masses, persuading them to turn to the ideological extremism of the Nazis. (Contextual factors- failure of democracy) (Could also use this paragraph to explain the political scheming that went on and Franz Von Papen's role in Hitler's rise to power):

- The Weimar constitution operated under a system of proportional representation; one seat in the Reichstag for every 80,000 votes cast. Such democracy meant that multiple coalition governments had to be formed for a party to have majority support in the Reichstag, meaning that the base of the government was broadening all the time, making any concerted decisions very difficult. This became an insurmountable handicap when the great depression struck in 1929.
- The result was the collapse of democracy as, under Brüning and his successors, the government no longer sought the regular mandate of the Reichstag. This led, between 1930 and 1933, to the authoritarian phase of the Weimar Republic, which, in turn provided the opportunity for Hitler to develop his ideas of a totalitarian state in 1932 and 1933.
- Democratic leaders failed to prove that their system was better for Germany than the authoritarian models of the past, creating hostility towards the republic and a demand for change, according to Friedrich the parties of the Republic failed to fulfil the functions which devolve upon them in a constitutional pluralistic Parliamentary democracy'.
- The economic crisis in 1929 therefore became a catalyst in the breakdown of the Weimar's parliamentary system; it destabilised the whole social structure, with serious side effects on the political system.

Paragraph: The economic turmoil experienced during the Weimar period combined with the impact of the Great Depression to turn people towards supporting the Nazis. (Contextual factors- economic conditions)

- One of the most significant aspects of economic turmoil in Germany prior to the Wall Street Crash was inflation; evaluating the impact of this General Morgan of the Weimar government pointed out how inflation has destroyed the equities of society. It has ruined the middle class and impoverished the workers'.
- The economic crisis of 1929 had equally detrimental effects; farmers went into great debt, since food prices had been falling since 1925 anyway. Factory and industrial workers lost their jobs; 40% of them were unemployed by 1932 and by 1933 over half of young Germans were unemployed. It is therefore evident that the depression had extreme impacts on the entire German population, but particularly the workers and the middle classes.
- The crisis hence radicalised sections of the population which inflation had already rendered unstable. People became desperate for employment and a better food supply, making them willing to ignore the violence and vulgarity of the Nazi party and support them because they promised 'work and bread'.

Paragraph: As people turned to either the extreme right or the far left, the Nazis' propaganda and address of key issues appealed to the masses, and their methods of using this to their advantage was one of the most significant reasons why Hitler rose to power. (Appeal of Nazism):

- Hitler consistently reformulated his party's programme in order to appeal to different parts of the population as they became alienated from the republic.
- Hitler even established a section within the Nazi party to identify reasons for different types of public discontent and develop programmes that would appeal to different social groups.
- Historian Storch later explained that the Nazi party 'revealed itself to be perhaps the most tactically flexible and opportunistic political movement in the Republic'.
- Hitler took advantage of the unpopularity of the Versailles Settlement and began to appeal to many using nationalist terms such as describing the men who signed the treaty as the November criminals.
