Eureka Service Manual:

Managing Industrial Knowledge Ikujiro Nonaka, David J Teece, 2001-02-06 Managing Industrial Knowledge illuminates the complex processes at work in the creation and successful transfer of corporate knowledge. It is now generally recognized that the competitive advantages of firms depends on their ability to build, utilize and protect knowledge assets. In this volume many of the foremost international authors and pioneers of the study of knowledge in firms present their latest work and insights into organizational knowledge and innovation. In a world where markets, products, technologies, competitors, regulations and even societies change rapidly, continuous innovation and the knowledge that produces innovation have become key. The chapters in this keynote volume shed new light on the contextual factors in knowledge creation, the links between knowledge and innovation in all aspects of business life and the processes by which these may be fostered or lost in organizations.

Six Rivers National Forest (N.F.), Little Doe and Low Gulch Timber Sale Project, Trinity County, 2007 The Knowing Organization Chun Wei Choo, 2006 Links the areas of organizational behaviour and information management. This book brings together research in organizational theory and information science in a general framework for understanding how organizations behave as information seeking, information creating and information using communities.
