Main Idea and Details

Students read to understand the central message of a passage or text.
They also monitor their comprehension of important details.

Tell students that this week they will practice the reading skill Main Idea and Details. Say: Every story has a main idea, which is what the story is mostly about. Knowing the main idea helps you understand what you are reading. Then read the instructions at the top of the Day 1 poem about Wind. Do poems have a main idea? (Yes, every poem tells about something.) Read the first stanza of the poem aloud as students follow along. Praise and ask students to tell the main idea on their own words. (Wind can be strong.) Do the same after reading the second stanza. (Wind can move softly.) Praise students for completing the first activity. For Item 1, help students differentiate the details made students in completing the first activity.
