The other common definitions and phrases that use this word all stem from this basic meaning: clearly showing, saying, or writing the exact meaning of a statement.

The Philippines is supported by many countries when it comes to the West Philippine Sea. For many years before 2012, Filipinos referred to their portion of the sea bordering the west of the country as South China Sea. Then, after the tense Scarborough Shoal Standoff in 2012, the government decided to name the maritime area as the West Philippine Sea.

For many decades prior to the 2012 Scarborough Shoal Standoff, the disputes in this part of the world remained dormant. It only escalated in 2012 after China sent paramilitary ships to Scarborough and blocked its perimeter to keep Filipino vessels and fishing boats away from the area.
