ACTIVITY 1 (30 MARKS)

Study the following extract and answer questions that follow:

Social and cultural views that influence and affect relationships

Umuntu Ngumuntu Ngabantu (A person is only a person through their relationship with others). Relationships are associations with other people. A person's well-being is affected by their relationships. Some relationships can be detrimental or damaging to the well-being. If the relationship is good and constructive the person will feel better, have a positive self-concept and high self-esteem. A negative and destructive relationship will result in the person having a negative self-concept and a low self-esteem.

In order to sustain a constructive relationship one has to create a Bill of Rights. The following are some examples of rights in relationships: loyalty, trustworthiness, respect, the right to be heard,
