Affirming Language Diversity in Schools and Society Pierre Orelus,2014-01-10 Language is perhaps the most common issue that surfaces in debates over school reform and plays a vital role in virtually everything we are involved This edited volume explores linguistic apartheid or the disappearance of certain languages through cultural genocide by dominant European colonizers and American neoconservative groups These groups have historically imposed hegemonic languages such as English and French on colonized people at the expense of the native languages of the latter The book traces this form of apartheid from the colonial era to the English only movement in the United States and proposes alternative ways to counter linguistic apartheid that minority groups and students have faced in schools and society at large Contributors to this volume provide a historical overview of the way many languages labeled as inferior minority or simply savage have been attacked and pushed to the margins discriminating against and attempting to silence the voice of those who spoke and continue to speak these languages Further they demonstrate the way and the extent to which such actions have affected the cultural life learning process identity and the subjective and material conditions of linguistically and historically marginalized groups including students

Making a Difference: Volume I and II Sasha A. Barab,Kenneth E. Hay,Nancy Butler Songer,Daniel T. Hickey,2017-09-05 William Wordsworth 1770 1850 needs little introduction as the central figure in Romantic poetry and a crucial influence in the development of poetry generally This broad ranging survey redefines the variety of his writing by showing how it incorporates contemporary concepts of language difference and the ways in which popular and serious literature were compared and distinguished during this period It discusses many of Wordsworth s later poems comparing his work with that of his regional contemporaries as well as major writers such as Scott The key theme of relationship both between characters within poems and between poet and reader is explored through Wordsworth's construction of community and his use of power relationships. A serious discussion of the place of sexual feeling in his writing is also included.

Situating Moral and Cultural Values in ELT Materials Handoyo Puji Widodo, Marianne Rachel Perfecto, Le Van Canh, Adcharawan Buripakdi, 2017-09-27. This volume accentuates how ELT materials can be a mediation of capitalizing on moral and cultural values which are more locally grounded in respective Southeast Asia SEA countries. It features critical studies on locally produced ELT materials textbooks situated in the following SEA countries: Timor Leste, The Philippines, Singapore, Malaysia, Cambodia, Vietnam, Indonesia, and Thailand. The chapters written by experts who know the ELT context of their respective SEA country critically examine the design and use of ELT materials widely used in local and national contexts. Thus, the volume provides fresh insight into how values are uniquely manifested in language classroom materials. The present text also brings together empirical, conceptual, and practical grounds for incorporating moral and cultural values into ELT materials development in such a way that it views morality and culture as a mutually complementing entity. This much-needed volume will be a valuable resource for those interested in the design and use of language materials in culturally and linguistically diverse contexts such as in the Asia Pacific, America, Africa, and Europe.
