DO NOT BEGIN UNTIL YOU ARE INSTRUCTED TO DO SO.

A limited number of elite problems, which will be presented in pairs, that are designed to challenge well-qualified teams are included in this round. The first three paragraphs of problems is expository. The remainder of problems provide additional information. When you begin to solve the pair, your solution writing should start immediately. The designated space on the problem sheet for answers must be completed. Solutions (including the correct answer) are not to be written on the solution writing area. Solutions are not to be written on the problem sheet. All answers must be integers.
